Re: Applications for the Transfer of Control of Licenses and Authorizations from
AT&T Wireless Services, Inc. and Its Subsidiaries to Cingular Wireless
Corporation (WT Docket No. 04-70)

Dear Ms. Dortch:

On behalf of Nextel Communications, Inc. ("Nextel"), and in accordance with the instructions contained in the Commission's July 16, 2004 Information Request to Nextel in the above captioned proceeding,<sup>1</sup> we hereby notify the Commission that Nextel has provided to Erin McGrath, Assistant Division Chief of the Mobility Division of the Wireless Telecommunications Bureau, two copies of a CONFIDENTIAL version of Nextel's fourth response to the July 16 Request, as revised through discussions with Commission staff on July 30, August 18, September 7, and September 14, 2004. This production provides an electronic version of a spreadsheet containing information regarding Nextel's non-voice service offerings.

As the Commission contemplated when it issued the Protective Order in this proceeding,<sup>2</sup> the information contained in this response is both commercially and financially sensitive and concerns proprietary information that neither Nextel nor its subsidiaries would reveal to the public or their competitors in the normal course of business. Under the terms of the Protective Order, Nextel is a Submitting Party and the confidential information it submits is therefore entitled to confidential treatment as prescribed in the Protective Order. Upon this understanding,

<sup>2</sup> See Order Adopting Protective Order, DA 04-729, App. A ¶ 2 (rel. Mar. 17, 2004) ("Protective Order"); see also 47 C.F.R. § 0.457(d)(1).
